T. F. Pfeifer, Esq.,
Counselor at Law,
120 Broadway,
New York City.

Dear Sir:

Your favor of the 19th inst. at hand.
Mr. Salisbury could probably be induced to come to your city but we believe it would be more practical for you to visit him here as in this way you would get the general atmosphere of the matter.

We might add that from our cursory examination of the newspaper items, there does not seem to have been established much motive for the crime and the statements made by Mr. Salisbury in connection with the written statement would indicate that this evidence is of considerable importance.

Yours very truly,

W/J
